

INTRODUCTORY EVENINGS DATES
NOVEMBER 2007 – JUNE 2008

Bauman College offers free monthly Introductory Evenings. At these orientations, prospective students can view course materials and receive a detailed presentation on Bauman College, its philosophy, curriculum, and employment opportunities. The Introductory Evening is not mandatory, but some prospective students often find it helpful. You may also access information on our website which can assist you in making a decision about attending our school.

Please RSVP to 800-987-7530 if you plan to attend.
